

CESARCOMANCHE THE JUSTUS LEAGUE

"Finally beats and rhymes on a record without all that phony rappin sh!t !!!"
- DJ Premier, Gang Starr

BIOGRAPHY

One of the founding emcees of North Carolina's critically acclaimed hip-hop crew, The Justus League.

Cesar Comanche, originally from Jacksonville, NC, began writing rhymes in 1994, but didn't pursue rhyming as a career until 1996. In that same year, he met budding producer 9th Wonder for the first time, and began doing live performances and recording songs.

After a few years of perfecting his craft, Comanche along with 9th Wonder, organized their fellow friends and rap artists in the Triangle's hip-hop scene and started the Justus League Crew in 1999. Since then, he has performed with Tha Liks, The Coup, Hieroglyphics, Z-Man, Dilated Peoples, Living Legends, Faust & Shortee, Wordsworth, Aceyalone, and O.C.

In addition to touring USA, Canada, Germany, United Kingdom, Sweden, Estonia, Denmark, France, Switzerland, and Austria, and performing with Little Brother and the rest of the Justus League, Comanche has appeared on television shows such as Time Warner Cable's Music Choice Rap Channel, Hip Hop Nation (NBC), Distortion 2 Static (WB Network), and Little Brother's "You Hear It First" segment on MTV2. He has also been featured in several videos, most notably, Little Brother's "Speed" and his own "Lamb to Lion" video which won a "Most Creative Atmosphere" award from the University of Chapel Hill.

Comanche has independently released two solo albums on his own Defenders of the Free World imprint (2000's Wooden Nickels and 2002's PaperGods) and with Blues Interactions (2005's Squirrel and The Aces The Japan Tour) with ABB Records (2005's Squirrel and The Aces) and has appeared on Little Brother's "The Listening" LP, Edgar Allen Floe's "True Links" LP, featured in the theme song This Side of the River of the Princeville, NC Documentary, Away Team, Legacy, and 9th Wonder's "National Mayhem" Triple album, Eternia's "Its Called Life" LP, the Justus League's "NC State of Mind Vol. 1" mixtape, and the Hall of Justus' "Singles Files" mixtape. During time off from his extensive touring schedule, Comanche is currently recording for 9th Wonders First album Mr. "Dream Merchant Vol 2" and for his fifth album, tentatively titled, "Die In Your Lap".
